Changes in state fire marshal's office result in compliance directive

Policy changes at the top level in the office of the State Fire Marshal have resulted in a 12-point compliance directive after inspection of the Putnam County Hospital, it was announced yesterday after a recent inspection of the Putnam County Hospital.

Board chairman Frank Ross stated that a change in chief personnel in the State Fire Marshal's office had prompted the recommendations. The new chief has announced that the department will act by the 1945 inspection law and that he expects 100 percent compliance. When asked why the local hospital had been given a nearly clean bill of health after each inspection since 1945, his reply was to the effect that under his administration, the old law would stand.

Following a recent inspection of hospital premises, these recommendations were made:

-Openings in the corridor walls to nursery must be glazed with wire-glass with sections no larger than 1,296 square inches.

-All patient rooms must be equipped with 1 1/4 inch solid wood bonded core doors or the equivalent.

-An approved smoke separation must be installed on the second floor.

-Openings in smoke barrier doors must be glazed with wire-glass.

-The center stairway must be enclosed with at least one hour fire resistive construction.

-Kitchen doors must not be held open.

-Stairwell doors must bear a sign indicating that these doors must be kept closed.

-The fire alarm must be tested at least weekly.

-The kitchen must be separated from the remainder of the facility by at least one hour fire resistive construction with one hour fire rated door.

-An evacuation plan must be posted in prominent locations on all floors.

-An automatic kitchen hood extinguishing system must be installed per NFPA96.

-The pressure vessels must be inspected at prescribed intervals.

Executive Manager Frank Baker told the Board that matters of operational procedure had already been implemented but many of the structural changes would be prohibitive cost-wise and impractical since the present hospital is to be phased out when Humana comes into operation.

After consideration of each item, the board authorized compliance with orders for wire-glass since this could be a safety advantage in event of fire. On other structural changes which in the opinion of the board are not emergency safety measures, Baker was advised to delay action.

Baker is to write to the Fire Marshal's office outlining what has been complied with or can be complied with in the immediate future and explaining why other structural changes are impossible to implement at the present time.

In other board action, four additional doctors were approved for emergency room duty.

They are: Dr. Ronald Stegemoller; Dr. Michael Neeley; Dr. Gregory Larkin and Dr. Richard Floyd. Dr. Fred Haggerty president of the local medical staff said that Dr. Larkin is considering permanent residence here next summer.

Routine business included consideration of the financial report and allowance of claims.

Board members present were Frank Ross, Noel Nicholson, Merle Troyer and Charles Whitaker.

Louie Canal gets in exercise, helps net diabetes fight funds

Greencastle Burger Chef manager Louie Canal got in some exercise Sunday riding a bicycle but he also helped raise funds for the Indiana Diabetes Association.

Canal and seven other

Burger Chef managers in the Terre Haute area formed a team to ride in the area state diabetes bikathon fund raiser held in Terre Haute.

The manager said the fast food chain supported the bikers with refreshments and awarded a free meal to those who finished the course covering several miles.

"Burger Chef became very involved in this fund raiser for the state association. All the money we raised as a team, $740, went to the diabetes group.

"With the money raised on the bikathon, a new diabetes association was formed in Terre Haute," Canal said.

The bike riders were all sponsored by business from their area and Canal said he had four--Jim Harris Chevrolet, Buick, Opel; Handy's Milk and Ice Cream Co., First Citizens Bank and Trust Co. and Torr's Restaurant.

Canal said he hopes the community will help support projects like this in the future.

Delta Zetas collect stamps, coupons for project

Greencastle Delta Zeta alumnae collected stamp books and Betty Crocker coupons to be used for the 1974 Flame Fantasy when they met recently at the Delta Zeta sorority house on the DePauw University campus.

The stamp books and coupons are used by the sorority to provide door prizes for persons attending the annual Flame Fantasy luncheon-fashion show which benefits speech and hearing handicapped persons in Indiana.

Other door prizes are provided by local merchants. Among those Greencastle merchants who have contributed in the past are Coan's Pharmacy, Eitel's Flowers, Golden Rule, Ace Hardware, Prevo's, Hook's Drugs and Hillman's.

This is the tenth year that Delta Zeta members statewide have sponsored Flame Fantasy. This year's program will again be held at the Columbia Club in Indianapolis.

Flame Fantasy is scheduled for Nov. 16 with an 11:30 social hour to precede the 12:30 p.m. luncheon.

Tickets for the event may be obtained by contacting Jo Ann Tipton, 2710 North Arlington, Indianapolis, 46219. The tickets are priced at $7 with all proceeds going to speech and hearing projects in the state.

Myers garners second honor

Seventh District Congressman John Myers today was named recipient of the "Guardian of Small Business" Award presented by the National Federation of Independent Business.

Wilson Johnson, President of the NFIB, said Rep. Myers, now serving his fourth term from the Seventh District will be honored at Capitol Hill Ceremonies today for his "outstanding voting record on behalf of small business during the 93rd Congress."

Johnson cited Congressman Myers's voting record on small business loans, reduction of paperwork, the minimum wage, energy conservation and government controls as the basis for the award.

This is the second award Congressman Myers has received in as many weeks based on his voting record.

Attacks on business chamber concern

Carroll H. Blanchar, president of the Indiana State Chamber of Commerce, today expressed concern over evidence of less participation by businessmen in governmental affairs, and also over recent attacks on business.

Blanchar who is chairman of Public Service Indiana, Plainfield, alluded particularly to attacks on the petroleum, drug and utility industries.

Speaking at the opening session of a three-day meeting of State Chamber board members and guests, Blanchar said:

"In view of developments during the past year, the growing disenchantment of businessmen with governmental affairs is understandable. It is my firm conviction, however, that we cannot stand by--either as individuals or as an organization--and permit this to happen.

"Too many issues vital to business and the economy are resolved in the political arena for business not to be active and participate," he added.

"In view of the numerous attacks on business from different groups, I believe it important that we move forward with plans to implement some kind of 'Explaining Business' program," he said.

Campaign addresses were to be delivered today by Indianapolis Mayor Richard Lugar, Republican candidate for the U.S. Senate, and,

Major Medical coverage at 2,196,000

The number of persons in the state protected by major medical insurance, which helps pay for virtually all types of care prescribed by a physician, has reached 2,196,000.

According to the Health Insurance Institute, this was the total insured as of the beginning of 1973, and is the latest available figure on major medical coverage in Indiana.

Nationally, this insurance, which provides benefits for medical expenses incurred both in and out of a hospital, protects an estimated 80 million persons through insurance companies alone--approximately 92 percent of this coverage through group policies.

Major medical insurance has grown rapidly, the number of persons so protected more than doubling in the 1962-72 decade. Over the same period, the amount of major medical benefits paid out nationally by insurance companies has more than quadrupled, going from $691,033,000 in 1962 to $3,290,640,000 in 1972.

The growth of the insurance can be traced, said the Institute, to the fact that it is geared to handle large medical bills, and health care costs have been rising rapidly along with other items in this inflationary period.

Originally, major medical policies paid maximum benefits of $5,000 to $10,000. But the trend has been to increase the maximums. An Institute study of group major medical policies issued in 1968 showed that only three percent of employees has maximum benefits levels of $50,000 or more. But on such policies issued in 1973, benefits of

Unemployment claims jump 208

The total number of unemployment insurance claims filed in Indiana last week edged up 208 from the previous week to 30,601 according to the Employment Security Division.

John F. Coppes, director of the Division, said that initial claims rose 1,033 during the period to 6,091. The increase was attributed to scattered layoffs which occurred due to lack of work, seasonal factors and secondary effects of labor

A little of:

This and that

Prior to the state and national conventions of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, I carried in this column some information of interest to all Putnam County overseas vets compiled by Commander Ralph Klipsch of Gen. Jesse M. Lee Post 1550.

Ralph now comes forward with some more data of particular interest to Post 1550 as follows:

As reported in this column on August 8th of this year, the local VFW membership for 1975 stood at 159 life members and 52 members paid for '75. From Aug. 8 to October 8 we had 117 paid life members making a total of 168 life members and 169 paid for the overall total of 337.

As was also reported in the Aug. 8th article, the amount for members sent into state VFW was raised $1 Oct. 1st. This means the local VFW Post saved $189 by members paying early. So now, it has happened again. The amount sent to National Headquarters beginning Jan. 1st will be raised by $1.

Now that we only need 177 to reach our quota of 514 we hope to have them all in by Jan. 1st.

As many of you probably read in the VFW Combat Vet paper, Ralph Klipsch, Commander of Post 1550 was named Commander of the Month for Division 6. By way of explanation, Division 6 consists of all posts with 501 to 750 members.

Thanks to all who helped make this Commander of the Month award possible. However, this is certainly a milestone.

All our 168 life members plus the 169 who paid early are the "Members of the Month" making Post 1550 first in Ind. Div. 6 VFW.

It sure would be a happy surprise to see Post 1550 in first place again this month.

Post 1550 is still wanting new and reinstated members as well as all continuous members.

Moscow correspondent discusses Russian people

What do the Russian people think of the Senate's recent decision to confer honorary citizenship on Alexander Solzhenitsyn, the Nobel Prize-winning Soviet author?

According to Leo Grulow, Moscow correspondent of The Christian Science Monitor, who is visiting Wabash College this week, the Russian people are aware of the author's departure from his country and move to Switzerland, however, they are not free to discuss this matter openly.

Grulow explained, "They were never informed of this move by their government. Censorship is still very much a part of the Russian way of life. The newspapers are controlled by the Party and the Party controls the government. Much of the outside information the Russians receive comes to them via foreign radio, such as the B.B.C. and Radio Free Europe."

"Party officials used to try and 'jam' or disrupt these incoming stations, however, this was most ineffective. Today, these stations are the average Russian's main source of world news."

"For example, the Russian people were never really informed of the grain deal with the United States. They learned about it thru rumor, which is not always the most accurate method, and often exaggerated. The story did appear in a very few papers, in a small article buried in the back pages. The Solzhenitsyn story was told in the same way."

"And we will never really know just what they think of his departure, because they don't have opinion polls there like we do here. They pollsters ask questions like, 'How do you think we could improve our factory conditions?' Political question are never asked."

"Newspapers are never allowed to criticize Party or top government officials. Their newspapers have very large staffs and reporters are paid a regular salary. In addition, they are paid extra for feature stories. Since reporters are paid by the word, these stories tend to be rather long, and often take up to a month to write. And, of course, all stories are carefully checked by the editors."

"The newspapers have restricted circulation, which is but another method of censorship. The paper with the largest circulation in the world is the Soviet Youth paper. Unlike most Russian papers, it does include pictures and color."

"Most Russian papers are very dry and boring when compared to ours. Since they are controlled by the Party, it is imperative that any address given by a leader or official government business is reported in full. Today, however, more space is being given to feature stories and human interest articles."

"This control is carried thru to the Russian schools, which are very old-fashioned. Our daughter attended high school there for several years and was very good at math. In one particular math class, she was given a problem and was able to work out the answer, using a different method than was taught in class. Another student told her that it was all wrong, in spite of the fact that she had the correct answer, simply because she had used a different method. There is little room for innovation or creativity in the Russian classroom today, although certain Russian education leaders are trying to change this."

Shakes initiated into lunch program

Youngsters attending Indiana schools from now on will be able to choose milk shakes as the beverage with their Type A lunches, according to Dr. Harold H. Negley, State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The new program was initiated Monday, September 30, at Chrysler Memorial High School in New Castle. It will be expanded across the state as quickly as schools are able to accommodate it and include milk shakes in their menus.

Offering milk shakes with the Type A lunch is designed to provide youngsters with an incentive to obtain the same nutrition they would receive from drinking milk with lunch, according to John J. Harter, state school lunch program director.

And, because milk shakes contain the same nutritional value as one-half pint of whole milk, participating school systems will receive the same U.S. Department of Agriculture reimbursement as they do now on whole milk, says Mrs. Nadine V. Kirkpatrick, food service director of the New Castle Community School system. Milk shakes also will be available with other type lunches as well as for between-class refreshment.

The entire program was developed by Dr. Donald G. Turchan, superintendent of New Castle schools and Mrs. Kirkpatrick, with the help of Meadow Gold Dairy in Muncie, which is the supplier to the schools of its "Shake Mix". The school uses the mix in its shake machines. Each serving amounts to 11-1/4 ounces or more liquid measure, according to Jim Miller of the dairy company.

This is the first milk shake formula to be approved for reimbursement by the Nutritional and Technical Service staff of the U.S.D.A. in the Midwest region.

Although a similar program is being used successfully in the Las Vegas, Nevada, schools with the encouragement of the State Health Department, this is the first time it has been undertaken on a statewide basis in cooperation with the U.S.D.A., according to Miller.

'All-American' band to entertain at Purdue

Purdue University's "All-American" Marching Band will entertain returning alumni at the Bollmaker-University of Illinois football game Saturday in Ross-Ade Stadium with a "Showboat" theme halftime show.

The colorful and nostalgic show will feature music from the era of the late 1920s such as "Robert E. Lee" and "Swanee," said Prof. Al G. Wright, director of bands. Also scheduled to appear with the band are the Dukes of Dixieland, a jazz group which is to perform that evening in the Elliott Hall of Music.

The band will provide a musical showcase at the end of the halftime show during the crowning of the Homecoming queen.

Also taking part in the program will be Golden Girl Linda Hughes, senior from Rensselaer; Girl in Black, Pam Moschini, junior in humanities from Phillipsburg, N.J.; two sets of Silver Twins, Candi and Randi Brough, twins from Carmel, and Claudia and Stephanie Banvard, look-alike sisters from Hammond, along with the "World's Largest" drum, and the Majorette Corps.

The band also will perform at a pre-game show at 12:15 p.m. in Slayter Center. At the band's pre-game show in the stadium, it will do a precision drill routine together with the traditional floating Purdue and Block P formations. It will salute the visiting Illini with the "Illinois Loyalty" song.

Covered Bridge Festival begins Friday

Parke County's 18th annual Covered Bridge Festival will be held Oct. 11 to 20 this year with ten full days of activities. With its 36 covered bridges more than any other county in the United States—Parke County's festival recreates the period of history of around the turn-of-the-century in crafts, costumes, food and activities. One of the county's covered bridges—Jackson over Sugar Creek—is the longest single span bridge in the world still in use. It is over 100 years old, as are several others in the county.

Ford grilling postponed in interest of Watergate coverup trial

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford's grilling by a House Judiciary subcommittee has been put off to a week from Thursday to avoid risking interference with the Watergate cover-up trial.

Chairman William L. Hungate, D-Mo., announced Tuesday that his subcommittee made the decision with White House concurrence "to afford ample time for selection and sequestration of the Watergate jury."

Hungate said his 6 p.m. EDT announcement that the Ford testimony, which had been scheduled for Thursday morning, would be postponed was triggered moments earlier by word from the court that the jury had not been selected.

He said he did not talk to U.S. District Judge John Sirica and was given no indication how soon the closed-door jury selection might be completed.

At the courthouse, Todd Christofferson, Sirica's law clerk, told newsmen that on the judge's instructions he had called Hungate's office to pass the word that there was little chance of completing selection of a jury before Thursday.

Christofferson also quoted the judge as saying he remained hopeful of having a jury by the end of the week and that he felt jury selection was progressing well.

Tuesday was the sixth day of the search for 12 unbiased jurors and six alternates. The process continued to be carried out behind the closed, guarded doors of Courtroom No. 2, with all parties under orders from Sirica to say nothing.

Hungate said the subcommittee reached an understanding Monday to postpone Ford's testimony if there was no jury by 6 p.m. Tuesday because of the advance time needed for security and other arrangements for a president's appearance.

"You can't just wait around until the last minute and if they haven't got a jury tell the President to come back tomorrow," Hungate said.

Ford has agreed to answer 14 questions on his pardon of former President Richard M. Nixon and subcommittee members are to question him for elaboration on his answers.

Boston schools were to open today despite violence

BOSTON (AP) — Boston public schools were to open as usual today despite continuing racial violence over court-ordered busing and a plea by a teachers' union that classes be suspended.

School Supt. William J. Leary rejected on Tuesday night a proposal to shut down schools made by the Boston Teachers' Union Executive Committee, which described the situation as "rapidly deteriorating."

Mayor Kevin White commended Leary for "resisting the union pressure by keeping the schools open." White called the union request "ill-conceived and unwise."

Leary said he would seek to convey the union's concerns to U.S. District Judge W. Arthur Garrity Jr., who ordered the busing which started when school opened Sept. 12.

A hearing was scheduled for today by Garrity to hear White's request for 125 federal marshals to keep order in South Boston and check the spread of busing-related violence throughout the city.

Gov. Francis W. Sargent said the National Guard is ready to act if needed.

Officials said citywide attendance was 69 per cent Tuesday, down from 72.5 per cent Monday. At least 37 injuries and two arrests were recorded in busing-related violence that spread to the predominantly black Roxbury section on Tuesday.

Among the injured were two city bus drivers who were struck by rocks in Roxbury.

Destrehan forces to be beefed up

DESTREHAN, La. (AP) — State police and sheriff's deputies are preparing to beef up their forces following an announcement that armed Ku Klux Klan security teams would patrol Destrehan.

The Klan announcement came after a 13-year-old white boy was shot to death Monday during a racial disturbance at Destrehan High School.

"We'll be ready for them," Maj. Grover Garrison, regional state police inspector, said Tuesday night of the Klan's patrol plans.

In Baton Rouge, Gov. Edwin

Edwards said that law enforcement should be left to the sheriff's office and the state troopers.

"Anyone who takes the law into their own hands — white or black — will be dealt with immediately, effectively and seriously," he said.

David Duke, national director of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, said Tuesday that two dozen armed Klan security teams would begin patrolling Destrehan today.

"Beginning tomorrow, we will help protect white people from rampaging black savages and murderers," said Duke.

Earlier Tuesday, state police booked a 16-year-old black Destrehan High student, Gary R. Tyler of nearby St. Rose.

Art shows youth

CHICAGO (AP)—The unique world of American Indian children is depicted in an exhibition of their art work at the Field Museum of Natural History.

The pictures made by these children, like children's art everywhere, have about them both spontaneity and sophistication, qualities which adult artists seek to recapture.

The exhibition, seen in Chicago Oct. 1-Dec. 2, includes more than 150 paintings, drawings, prints, beadwork and poetry by children ages 5 through 15.

They were selected from Indian schools, museum art classes and community centers across the country and organized by the Native North American Artists and the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York.

5 Percent surcharge

$15,000 wage earners to fight battle with inflation

WASHINGTON (AP) — If Congress approves, Americans earning $15,000 and above are going to finance most of the new war against inflation.

That was made clear by President Ford in his economic address Tuesday. He offered proposals to help business, housing, the unemployed and public utilities.

But for the taxpayer, he proposed a 5 per cent surcharge on income above $15,000 for families and $7,500 for individuals.

He also announced a 5 per cent surcharge in corporate income taxes, but that will be more than offset by increases in the investment tax credit for businesses.

Ford acknowledged that the proposed tax hike, which would apply to about 28 per cent of all taxpayers, would be politically unpopular. But he said it was the "acid test of our joint determination to whip inflation."

Here are some answers to questions that taxpayers may have on how the surcharge would affect them, if Congress approves it:

Q: Will the surcharge result in a bigger withholding tax from my pay check?

A: No, the tax would be paid when you file your 1975 income tax returns, which means you would not actually pay it until 1976.

Q: Who will pay the surtax?

A: Generally speaking, families with gross incomes of $15,000 and over will be subject to the tax. For individuals, the cutoff is $7,500. Those with incomes below these levels would normally be excluded.

Q: I'm making more than $15,000. Does that mean my total tax bill will be increased by 5 per cent because of the surcharge?

A: No, basically the surcharge will be applied to the tax on your income above $15,000, although it's slightly more complicated than that.

If you are the head of a family of four and earn $15,000, the government already allows you $2,000 in standard deductions and $3,000 in personal exemptions for your family. That leaves you with $10,000 taxable income.

The surcharge would apply as a 5 per cent increase to any taxable income in excess of $10,000 in your case.

In the case of an individual taxpayer who takes a $1,300 standard deduction and a single exemption of $750, his taxable income is $5,450, and the surcharge would apply to anything over that.

Q: Does this go into effect immediately?

A: No, the President wants the surcharge to apply to 1975 income only. It would be a one-year program. And Congress would have to approve it in any event.

Ford campaigning against price-fixing WASHINGTON (AP) — Butchers, bakers and zipper-makers already are feeling heat from the Ford administration's campaign against price-fixing. Future targets may face tougher treatment and million-dollar fines.

President Ford gave the attack fresh impetus Tuesday when he promised stern enforcement of antitrust laws and asked Congress for harsh penalties for violators.

No President since Harry S. Truman has taken such a strong public stand against illegal corporate conspiracies, said government antitrust lawyers.

The administration attack is designed to end business practices which diminish competition and force prices up for the consumer.

Assistant Atty. Gen. Thomas E. Kauper, head of the Justice Department's antitrust division, has estimated that such practices cost Americans as much as $80 million a year.

"I am determined to return to the vigorous enforcement of antitrust laws," Ford said as he sent Congress proposed legislation raising the maximum fine for antitrust violators from $50,000 to $1 million for corporations and $100,000 for individuals.

With his statement, Ford took up an attack which has been gaining momentum in the department and the Federal Trade Commission.

Though he endorsed its key elements, Ford said nothing about Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe's plea for stiffer prison sentences as well as fines for corporate conspirators.

Saxbe called on Friday for legislation raising the maximum prison term for price fixing from one year to five years.

Ford's written proposals for tougher fines were sent immediately to Congress where a House committee earlier in the day approved legislation setting the maximum corporate fine at half the amount Ford asked.

Some Japanese political leaders thumb Sato peace prize

By GENE KRAMER
Associated Press Writer
Some Japanese political leaders have criticized former Prime Minister Eisaku Sato's

receipt of a share of the 1974 Nobel Peace Prize. They contend he didn't deserve it because of his role in keeping U.S.
military forces in Japan.

The selection of Sato and Sean MacBride of Ireland as cointerwinners of the award was announced Tuesday in Oslo, Norway. Citations said the selections were for Sato's efforts to limit nuclear weapons and stabilize conditions in Asia and MacBride's many years of work to protect human rights.

The Nobel Committee of the Norwegian parliament said the two would share the $124,000 award equally. Both men are expected to be in Oslo Dec. 10 to accept it.

"Sean MacBride's efforts for human rights and Eisaku Sato's work for limitation of nuclear weapons and for international conciliation contributed each in its own way to securing peace," the committee said. "Their efforts have come in areas that in our time are central to the work for peace."

Director Tim Greve of the Nobel Institute said about 50 candidates had been nominated for the 1974 prize.
Candidates' names are never officially revealed.

It was the first time that a Japanese or an Irishman won the Peace Prize, although five Japanese and two Irishmen have received Nobel prizes in other categories. The award is named for the late Alfred Nobel, the Swedish inventor of dynamite, who donated the prize fund.

Sato, 73, was Japan's prime minister from 1964 to 1972. He said on learning in Tokyo of his choice that he knew he was being considered but had thought he would not win.

A Socialist party official quickly criticized the selection, declaring that Sato as prime minister "vehemently maintained" the U.S.-Japanese Security Pact "which, as a result, allows U.S. ships to bring nuclear weapons to Japan."

The prize was split last year between Secretary of State
Henry A. Kissinger and North Vietnamese Politburo member Le Duc Tho for their Vietnam peace accord, which ended American involvement in the Vietnam war. That decision caused an uproar that resulted in the resignation of two of the five members of the Nobel Committee.

MacBride, 70, a former Irish independence fighter whose father was executed by the British, is now United Nations
Commissioner for South-West Africa, or Namibia.

15,000

Migrants to gain federal aid

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Gov.
Otis R. Bowen has announced the U.S. Department of Labor will provide $15,000 to help migrant farm hands stranded in Indiana because of freeze-damaged crops.

At the same time Tuesday,
Bowen said he is disappointed another federal agency has refused to declare Indiana a statewide disaster area because of crop failures.

Bowen said the $15,000 grant will be given to Associated Migrant Opportunities Services Inc., which will speed disbursement and keep the state from having to set up machinery to allocate the funds.

In announcing the grant, the governor withdrew an earlier request to permit Indiana to aid migrants with $20,000 in federal funds earmarked for tornado relief.

Crop failures prevented migrants from working, and about 2,000 haven't enough money to get home to Texas or Florida.

The U.S. Agriculture Department has notified the state it must submit crop damage information on a county-by-county basis. But Bowen said, "The procedure will multiply our workload, perhaps substantially, as we try to define eligibility for federal assistance. It does seem to me that there is an unnecessary amount of federal red tape involved."

Crop damage was estimated at $339 million for corn and $262 million for soybeans because of too much rain in the spring, too little in the summer and early frosts. State officials said as many as 62 counties may be eligible for disaster area designation.

Kissinger to test withdrawal spirit while searching peace link

WASHINGTON (AP) — On his sixth mediating trip to the Middle East since the October war, Henry A. Kissinger will test Arab and Israeli enthusiasm for another Sinai withdrawal while searching for a way to link it with an over-all peace settlement.

His journey comes amid increasing tensions between the Arabs and the United States because of disagreements over oil prices.

The fast-stepping secretary of state, who set out after midnight from Andrews Air Force Base, plans to visit seven countries within a week, possibly doubling back to Cairo before leaving the Middle East for a final check with Egyptian President Anwar Sadat.

President Ford and members of his Cabinet drove to Andrews to see Kissinger off on what Ford called "a vitally important mission."

U.S. officials said the trip is unlikely to produce the detailed terms even of the next stage.

"The primary purpose is to give concreteness to the negotiating process, and perhaps to agree on some timing," Kissinger said at a news conference Monday.

Sources in Cairo said Sadat and his advisers still reserve a vital role for Kissinger in the Middle East, partly because he engineered troop engagements with Israel on both the Egyptian and Syrian fronts last spring.

But the sources said hard-line statements on oil prices by Kissinger and Ford have caused concern in Cairo and other Arab capitals. They added that Egyptians are uneasy about what they call a delay in U.S. food shipments to Egypt and obstacles in the supply of promised aid in the peaceful development of atomic energy.

His first stop is Cairo, after refueling in Torrejon, Spain. He and Sadat will have an opening session Wednesday night and talk all day Thursday.

Kissinger plans to go on to Damascus on Friday for discussions with Assad and to Jordan that evening to see Hussein. He will visit Saudi Arabia and Israel over the weekend and then Algeria and Morocco before returning to Washington next Tuesday.

Nation basks in fair, mild weather as showers dissipate

Showers dissipated over Western and Southwestern states today, leaving weather conditions across most of the nation fair and mild.

Scattered showers dampened parts of Nevada, Utah and New Mexico. Nearly half an inch of rain fell Tuesday evening at Concord, Calif.

A band of thunderstorms across southern Florida also weakened.

Skies remained overcast across the Great Lakes region, northern Ohio Valley and parts of the Northeast, and rain and drizzle fell in Upper Michigan.

Ground fog developed in the Pacific Northwest and in sections of central Oklahoma and eastern Kansas.

Skies over the rest of the nation were mostly clear.

Below-normal temperatures persisted in the Northeast, where many overnight readings fell into the 30s.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 26 at Houlton, Maine, to 82 at Blythe, Calif.

Some other reports: Anchorage 36 rain, Atlanta 53 clear, Boston 43 partly cloudy, Buffalo 41 cloudy, Chicago 52 partly cloudy, Cincinnati 41 partly cloudy, Cleveland 48 cloudy, Dallas 70 partly cloudy, Denver 52 clear, Detroit 50 cloudy, Honolulu 78 partly cloudy, Indianapolis 44 cloudy, Kansas City 52 clear, Los Angeles 63 cloudy, Louisville 42 clear, Miami 76 partly cloudy, Minneapolis-St. Paul 48 cloudy, Nashville 44 clear, New York 50 cloudy.

Circumstantial evidence good

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Circumstantial evidence was sufficient to convict a Fort Wayne man of heroin possession, the Indiana Court of Appeals ruled Tuesday.

The court rejected James D. Smith's contention his admission of heroin use, made to police at a motel where he was arrested, should not have been considered because the proof of heroin never was established.

Smith's girl friend told police she saw him possess, cook and inject himself with a substance that appeared to be heroin.

Dodgers blast Bucks; to face Athletics

By JACK STEVENSON
AP Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Steve Garvey backed Don Sutton's masterful pitching with a pair of two-run homers for the Los Angeles Dodgers Wednesday to beat Pittsburgh 12-1, capture the National League pennant and set up the first all-California World Series. The triumph gave the explosive Dodgers the league championship 3-1 in the best-of-five series, the same margin the Oakland A's ran up with their 2-1 victory over the Orioles in Baltimore Wednesday.

Los Angeles and Oakland open the world championship best-of-seven series in Dodger Stadium Saturday afternoon. Garvey's homers came on consecutive plate appearances in the third and fifth innings, and both times the former Michigan State star had Jimmy Wynn on first base. Garvey also singled twice, scoring both times.

Sutton worked eight innings, giving up three hits, with Mike Marshall taking over in the ninth after Los Angeles built its 12-1 score, the biggest margin ever in major league playoff history. Marshall held the Pirates hitless in the ninth. Sutton had shut out the Pirates 3-0 in the NL championship series opener in Pittsburgh. That was his 10th straight victory this season, and the 185-pound, 6-foot right-hander made it No. 11 Wednesday. He was 19-9 in the regular season and was expected to pitch the second World Series game against Oakland. Andy Messersmith was the probable opening game starter for the Dodgers.

He pitched 15 2-3 innings of shutout ball in the playoffs until Willie Stargell slammed a home run into the rightfield pavilion with two out in the seventh, the Pirate slugger's second homer in as many days. A crowd of 54,424, some of whom burst onto the field after the game, watched the Dodgers grab a 1-0 lead in the first inning off the Pirates' southpaw, Jerry Reuss, who never found his control.

Davey Lopes walked to lead off the game and then Wynn doubled off the left centerfield wall, knocking in the first run. In the third, Garvey smashed a low liner over the right centerfield fence off Reuss, and in the fifth, he blasted one off Ken Brett over the leftfield barrier. The most valuable player in this season's All-Star Game, the 190-pounder who stands 5-foot-10 had 21 homers during the regular season.

Garvey won his starting first base assignment after sensational pinch hitting late last season. He was instrumental in the Dodgers' first pennant victory in eight years.

The Dodgers pounded 12 hits off five Pirate pitchers in nailing down the NL crown and Garvey had four of them, adding singles off Larry Demery and Dave Guisti.

Lopes' triple in the sixth knocked in catcher Steve Yeager and the Dodger third baseman came home on the same play when Pirate second baseman Rennie Stennett's relay to third went into the Dodger dugout.

The Dodgers scored two runs in the seventh and three more in a wild eighth inning. Shortly thereafter, one fan ran out onto the field to hug the Dodger players before security guards got took him away. After Marshall retired the final three Pittsburgh batters in order, hundreds of fans swept onto the field.

Besides Stargell's homer, Pittsburgh's other hits off Sutton were of the scratch variety—a high bouncer to shortstop by Dave Park in the second and a blooper single to left by pinch-hitter Paul Popovich. Sutton had a similar hit, a run-scoring single in the seventh that bounced off Stennett's glove.

Clovers crush hapless Eels

It was another ho-hum afternoon for the Cloverdale cross-country squad as the Eminence Eels fell victim to a 15-47 crushing.

Jack Galloway "filed his fingernails" at the line for 30 seconds after the rest of the pack had galloped off, but he still managed to win the meet, coming through in 12:42.

This was the second such thirty second handicap for the Cloverdale standout, in a three-way meet at home Tuesday against Clay City and Owen Valley (which the Clovers won handily). Galloway raced to first place in 12:38.

Coach Al Tucker earlier had attributed Galloway's late starting as a tuneup for Saturday's county meet at Cloverdale. Galloway and South Putnam's Keith Puckett should vie for meet honors in the county.

Cloverdale's Greg Neece following 17 seconds behind Galloway took second place in 13:25.

The next three spots were filled by Cloverdale runners, as Mel Jones, Ed Raney, and Wes McClure had respective 13:32, 13:39, and 13:47 times.

Ware was the first Eminence harrier to cross the line, in 14:03, Cloverdale's Tim Ford trotted in seventh in 14:08, followed by Eminence's Poland, in 14:09.

Rick Longdon rounded out the Clover top ten finishers in 14:20, as Cecil finished tenth for Eminence, in 14:40.

Walker named Olympic coach

CHICAGO (AP) — The North Carolina Central University track coach, who doubles as commissioner of the Mid-East Athletic Conference, has been named head coach of the U.S. men's 1976 Olympic track and field team.

Dr. Le Roy Walker, who was director of this year's U.S.-USSR track meet, was named to the post Sunday by the U.S. Olympic Committee, after a meeting of its track and field committee in Chicago.

The committee also tapped Roy Griak, University of Minnesota track mentor, as head coach for the U.S. men's track squad in the 1975 Pan American Games.

Walker, a black, engineered the first U.S.-Africa track meet in 1971, and at NC Central has guided several Olympians, including Lee Calhoun, 110-meter hurdles gold medalist in 1956 and 1960, and Kenyan Robert Ouko and Julius Sang, who raced to gold medals in the 1,600-meter relay in Munich.

The committee also named assistant coaches for the 1976 games. They are Sam Bell, track coach at Indiana; Lee Calhoun, assistant track coach at Yale and a 1956 and 1960 Olympic gold medalist; Jimmy Carnes, track coach at Florida; Stan Huntsman, University of Tennessee; and Carl "Benny" Wagner of Oregon State University.

Dr. William Exum, athletic director at Kentucky State University, will manage the 1976 team, assisted by Bruce McDonald, Westchester, N.Y.; Robert Newland, Eugene, Ore.; and Gil Bishop, Bakerfield, Calif.

'Russ' crush Canadians

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union won on the ice and in the conference room during the weekend as the incident-plagued Team Canada-Russia hockey series wound up.

With a 3-2 victory Sunday and a 4-4 tie Saturday, the Russians wrapped up the eight-game series with four wins, one loss and three ties. They also gained clear superiority over the World Hockey Association all-stars.

In their last meeting in 1972 with Canadian pros — from the National Hockey League — the Russians lost four games against three wins and a tie.

Sunday's game was anticlimactic since it meant nothing to the Russians, who actually won the series with Saturday's tie. But the Soviets didn't let down. They skated and bumped in their usual fashion and proved too strong for Canada.

Team Canada went ahead in the first period on Bobby Hull's power-play goal just 39 seconds after Alexander Yakushev was given a penalty. Yakushev knotted the score at 6:27 of the second period with Jim Harrison of Team Canada in the penalty box.

Russia's Viktor Shalimov scored in the opening moments of the third period while Canada was playing two men short. Later, Shalimov tallied again.

Ralph Backstrom, voted the top player in the game for Canada, scored on a pass from Gordie Howe at 12:42, but it was not enough.

The Saturday game ended in controversy that carried over into Sunday's match. With the score tied 4-4, Hull apparently scored. However, referee Tom Brown of Canada ruled the game was over and disallowed the goal.

Anatoly Seglin of Russia, a former referee in world championship and Olympic hockey competition, said Brown could have overruled the timekeeper and declared a goal for Canada.

"He could have skated to center ice and faced off the puck. That's all he had to do," Seglin said.

Following Sunday's game, Team Canada General Manager Bill Hunter said he will insist that several conditions are changed before the WHA will become involved in another Russian series.

Hull and Gordie Howe agreed that Canada would be much stronger if the team was composed of players from both the WHA and the National Hockey League.

"I'd have to say it would be easier if we had players like Phil Esposito and Bobby Orr on this club," said Hull.

Moses Malone off to 'expensively' good start

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Moses Malone, the 19-year-old high school basketball star turned pro, looks as extensive in talent and size as he is expensive.

That's the word from his coach and teammates on the Utah Stars of the American Basketball Association. The Stars signed Malone in August to a contract variously reported at $1 million to $3 million, snatching the Petersburg, Va., product from the University of Maryland.

In the Stars' first four pre-season games, the baby-faced, 6-foot-11 Malone is off to a good start as only the second player ever drafted out of high school by the pros.

Malone scored 74 points and pulled in 51 rebounds in the four games, both club highs. Teaming with veterans Willie Wise and Ron Boone, Malone led the Stars to their first exhibition victory Tuesday, 82-78 over the Kansas City-Omaha Kings of the NBA.

The game was no artistic triumph either for the Stars, who shot poorly, or for Malone, who showed rookie jitters in his home-court debut. He missed the basket from close range several times and dropped a lead pass for what would have been a certain layup.

But after Malone's 14-point, 17-rebound performance, his best showing of the exhibition season, Stars Coach Morris "Bucky" Buckwalter said: "Mo's learning about as fast as anyone I've ever seen. He's progressing each game."

Malone's greatest strengths, according to Buckwalter, are his great reactions and shot-blocking. In the Kings game, Malone was beaten badly under the basket on one occasion by forward Ron Behagen but recovered in time to surprise Behagen by smashing his shot to the floor.

Gerald Govan, who was replaced at starting forward by Malone in Tuesday night's game, thinks Malone is "just unreal, he's so mature."

"He'll be a good ball player," Behagen said. "I guess right now his main strength is his rebounding. But he can score, too, and he will score a lot this year."

Behagen also cited some weaknesses. "On defense, he doesn't change ends of the floor quickly enough," Behagen said. "And he rides your back a lot. In our league, you don't do that and get away with it."

"When he comes back slow like that on defense, he'll get beat by forwards coming faster," said Govan. "But he's so young, you wouldn't expect him to know everything."

'He lost only ten yards'

LEBANON, Tenn. (AP) — Join Cumberland College, if you will, to remember a piece of history and mourn the most lopsided score in college football history: Georgia Tech 222, Cumberland College 0.

It happened on a sunny October in Atlanta, just 56 years ago today.

"I think one of our best plays of the game was when one of our players got the ball on a pitchout and he lost only 10 yards," recalls Haysler Poague, 76, one of the survivors of the massacre.

The game was scheduled with the Rambling Wreck at Georgia Tech guaranteeing Cumberland $500 if the Tennessee team would show up. Football was almost dead on the Cumberland campus in Lebanon and, as Poague recalls from his home in Clinton, Mo., some of the players were interested. "We were more interested in the money than anything else. We figured we didn't have much of a chance, but we didn't think it would be that bad."

And, as might be suspected, if football were almost dead before, it was buried in Atlanta. Cumberland College never again took the field. Some even suspect the game led to the demise of the college's once famous law school several years later.

"We really didn't have such a bad team," recounts Poague. "We were just so ridiculously outclassed that day that it was, well, ridiculous."

How did the crowd react to 'he slaughter?' "I guess I can describe them better than most of the guys since I heard most of what they were saying when I was on the bench," said Poague, who was lucky enough to suffer a knee injury that took him out of the breach early in the contest.

"At first they thought it might be a good game, but it didn't take them long to realize that it wasn't going to be too difficult. They did a lot of laughing after that."

The Tech coach at the time, John Heisman, later was immortalized by having the Heisman trophy named after him. The Cumberland coach?

Nobody really remembers.

Dear Abby

He needs his father for a friend

DEAR ABBY: I needed some Scotch tape so I looked in my son's desk for some, and noticed the beginning of a letter my son had written to his girl friend. It read, "I am only interested in being stoned, spending money and sex."

I read no further.

My first impulse was to confront him with this, but then he would say I had no right to go snooping through his desk.

I don't think I should go on ignoring this. I would appreciate some advice. He is 18 1/2.

BEWILDERED FATHER

DEAR FATHER: You could be about 17 years too late. It won't help you now to be reminded that you failed to build the kind of father-son relationship that inspires trust, confidence and total honesty. It's possible that what you read did not reflect your son's thoughts accurately, however.

Don't tell him what you saw, but try to get a dialogue going so you can get inside his head. Encourage honesty, and no matter what he says, be cool, and don't put him down or make him feel guilty. If you can develop candid two-way communication, you'll be able to influence and eventually help your son. He doesn't need punishment. Father, he needs a mature understanding friend.

DEAR ABBY: About a week before our daughter and her steady graduated from high school, they told us that she was pregnant and they wanted to get married.

There was a long silence, then my husband said: "We've all made mistakes in our lives, but some of us never got caught. Now you two kids will have to excuse us for five minutes while we plan our daughter's wedding."

Then Dad led me into the bedroom, handed me $25 and said: "Let's see if you're as smart about money now as you were 25 years ago."

Needless to say, time was short, so I went downtown the next morning and bought six yards of yellow cotton, two simple formal patterns, two yards of pink lace, two yards of ivory lace, and some pink and ivory ribbon—all for less than $10. (I had $15 left over for the flowers and reception. Boy, I had money to burn!)

My younger daughter (age 15) and I made the dresses. I baked the wedding cake and made punch. Only the very immediate families were invited to the wedding.

Our minister performed the ceremony in front of our fireplace, which was decorated with greenery from our garden and two white candles. The girls were beautiful in their simple dresses with their long black hair tied back with ribbons to match their dresses. The bride carried a single ivory carnation, and her sister, a pink carnation.

We made sure the fridge was well stocked, and Dad, Sister and I spent the weekend in a neighboring town with Dad's brother.

Dad says I'm still as smart about money as I was 25 years ago.

DEAR NO: You're not only smart about money, you are wise about other things, too. And so is your husband.

How to keep well

Minor sore throat rarely needs treatment

By T.R. Van Dellen, M.D.
(c) 1974 by The Chicago Tribune
World Rights Reserved

A minor sore throat in a healthy person seldom requires concern or treatment.

The best advice I can give is to lay low for two or three days, get at least eight hours sleep, limit your social activities and cut down on tobacco and alcohol. Steam inhalations or a couple of aspirin tablets will relieve the distress and promote rest.

For years startling claims have been made for mouthwashes and gargling products as relief for minor sore throat. These products have been under fire lately.

In fact, rinsing the mouth and gargling with ordinary tap water reduces the number of oral bacteria, which shows that the effect of gargling is purely mechanical. Some people add a pinch of salt or baking soda to the water.

Gargling with hot water is more effective than with tepid or cold water but iced drinks are more soothing when the throat is sore and swallowing is painful.

If using an expensive gargle, rather than ordinary water, makes your throat feel better, use one. But you'd probably get the same results from tap water.

Gargles have little, if any effect on a strep throat, since strep throat requires at least 10 days of penicillin. Antibiotics are recommended when the person has high fever, feels toxic and can't swallow. Penicillin is a must for the person who has a history of rheumatic fever or other ailments that are triggered by streptococci.

A laboratory culture is the only way to determine if the germs causing your sore throat are streptococci, staphylococci, diplococci or viruses. On the other hand, the physician has a pretty good idea when your sore throat is more than a minor disorder.

SALIVARY STONES

Mrs. T.J.K. writes: My salivary glands are blocked due to the formation of tiny crystals. Max, my teenage son, has the same trouble. What causes this condition?

REPLY

These are salivary calculi—tiny stones that obstruct the salivary glands. In some instances, the opening of the gland is too narrow for the crystals to pass. In other cases, the saliva is too concentrated. In your family, hereditary could be a factor. Your physician can determine which of these possibilities is to blame for your condition.

LEG SHAVING

E.G. writes: I shave my leg every other day. Will this habit stimulate more hair to grow?

REPLY

This old fallacy was popular among boys just starting to shave. They thought that the more they shaved, the more hair would sprout. Growth of the hair is a perfectly natural process that has nothing to do with the frequency of shaving. When the legs are shaved, stubble forms and gives the impression that hair growth is stimulated.

LIQUOR CURE

A reader writes: Someone told my diabetic husband that drinking rum or scotch will burn up his excess sugar. I can't believe this is true. Is it?

REPLY

No. The body treats alcohol as it does other carbohydrates. Diabetics can have an occasional drink, but the calories and grams must be incorporated into their diet.

Opening lead - two of clubs.

Good card play is a step-by-step process by which declarer gradually learns how the adverse cards are distributed and proceeds to take full advantage of this knowledge.

Consider this hand played by Bob Hamman, of Dallas, in the 1971 world championship match between Australia and the United States.

West led a club, won by East with the jack, and East cashed the king of spades before continuing with the ace of clubs. Hamman ruffed and played the queen of spades, taken by East with the ace.

East led a third round of clubs, ruffed by South, and Hamman was now in a position where he had lost three tricks and West had four trumps to his three.

Had Hamman decided to draw trumps at this stage, hoping to take the rest of the tricks on the assumption the trumps were divided 3-2, he would have failed in his mission. Instead, he cashed the

A-A of diamonds in that order, bringing forth West's Q-J.

Hamman now had solid grounds for suspecting that the trumps were divided 4-1 instead of 3-2. West had shown up with two diamonds, at most four clubs (he had led the deuce at trick one), and probably had three spades, judging from the early spade plays.

So Hamman led the spade jack at trick eight and discarded a diamond, finding the suit divided 3-3, as he had expected.

He then cashed the ace of trumps and proceeded to make the hand - even though he was outnumbered by West in trumps - by scoring the last four tricks on a crossruff.

He ruffed dummy's J-10 of spades with the K-Q of trumps, and ruffed his 10-6 of diamonds with the J-10 of trumps, thus destroying West's apparent trump trick.

WORRY CLINIC

By George W. Crane, Ph.D., M.D.

Ester soon found that her stodgy mate preferred "boudoir cheesecake" to the dining room desserts he formerly gobbled. Wives take lesson from the "Call" girls who steal your mates via "boudoir cheesecake."

CASE B-665: Ester V., aged 37, worries over the waning affection of her husband. "Dr. Crane," she moaned, "I am sure he isn't having an affair with any outside sirens. But he has been less and less affectionate toward me the past few years."

"Could it be due to the fact he now weighs 190 pounds when it was only 155 on our wedding day?"

"Before he goes to bed at night he always wants a dish of ice cream or a piece of pie or cake."

"So how can I get him to renew his affection for me?"

CALORIE-FREE CAKE

Serve him the best type of cake to prevent a platonic marriage. Besides, this cake has no calories, so beats all the fancy recipes that Betty Crocker can offer.

"What kind of cake is that?" Ester eagerly inquired. "Boudoir cheesecake," I replied.

"Remember, too, that it doesn't add any calories to man or wife!"

"And is ideal insurance against straying husbands and divorce!"

Actually, it would be a good idea for every church to conduct a Culinary Marriage Clinic, with special emphasis on "Boudoir Cheesecake."

For that delicacy is the main appeal used by sirens and paramours to win devoted husbands away from their flat, stodgy wives!

The paramour may not even be able to perk coffee or fry an egg!

But she may wear a good husband away from a wife who wins blue ribbons on her culinary skill at producing other types of cake, such as sheet cake, layer cake, upside down cake, etc.

"Boudoir cheesecake" also has far more appeal than the liquor glasses at the taverns! For straying husbands routinely confess they'd much rather have an affair with their own wife, than with the paramour.

But the paramour serves "boudoir cheesecake" whereas the stodgy wife remains hypnotized by the kitchen stove and its oven products.

When Esther started serving "boudoir cheesecake" to her platonic husband, he began to omit his ice cream and dinner table desserts in favor of boudoir romancing.

Alas, the trouble with most wives is the illogical. "Because I don't crave 'boudoir cheesecake' very often, then my husband doesn't crave it, either!" is their usual fallacious thinking.

That notion is the main reason why our divorce courts are glutted and over 30% of formerly happy marriages are now wrecked!

For male and female appetites are NOT the same! At the dinner table, you wives freely admit that your husband may demand 3,500 calories of gastric viands when you are hungry for not over 2,000 calories.

Indeed, you often delight in tempting your husband to take second helpings of your gastric creations and then smile happily when he does so.

But how many wives try to entice him to seek second helpings of "boudoir cheesecake?"

Yet normal husbands have maybe 3 or 4 times the erotic hunger of their wives, unless repeated rebuffs by such stodgy females have alienated their erotic appetite for those same women.

But such husbands still retain a basic hunger for boudoir cheesecake, so they are then receptive to outside temptation! Wives get help!

Critic's choices

THE WALTONS. "The Romance." Good episode for Michael Learned's Mother Olivia Walton. A young, handsome art teacher (David Selby) becomes fascinated by his new night school student, Olivia. The incident gives Miss Learned a chance to break out of her patient mother role, and she's quite engaging portraying an embarrassed, pleased woman, slightly unsure of herself in a new situation. 7:00 PM (8) (10).

THE ODD COUPLE. "The Dog Story." Tony Randall shines through all his bright lines in this wonderfully ridiculous situation in which Felix "dogsnaps" a famous canine which, he feels, is being exploited for dangerous stunts by his greedy owner-trainer. Naturally, Oscar unwittingly becomes involved, and a funny courtroom sequence caps this amusing entry. 7:00 PM (13) (38).

THURSDAY NIGHT MOVIE. Good Guys and the Bad Guys. (1969). Entertaining western fare with Robert Mitchum starring as an aging sheriff, who teams up his old enemy George Kennedy to ward off a planned train robbery. There's more attention paid to characterization than action, the two actors are very good in the leading roles, and David Carradine scores as a young outlaw giving an energetic performance. The supporting cast is also topnotch, including Lois Nettleton, Marie Windsor, and the wily Douglas V. Fowley as a hermit of sorts. 8:00 PM (8) (10).

IRONSIDE. "Cross Doublecross." There's more substance and suspense than usual in tonight's case. Gary Lockwood, well cast as a cop-on-the-run, has been marked for death - but by whom? Incidentally, Raymond Burr's Ironside has little to do tonight, while regular Elizabeth Baur (Fran) figures prominently in the action. 8:00 PM (2) (6).

MOVIN' ON. "The Trick Is to Stay Alive." Our truck-driver stars, Will and Sonny (Frank Converse and Claude Akins), are hi-jacked by two escaped convicts and the seductively evil girl friend (Marilyn Hasset) of the younger con (James Keach). 9:00 P.M. (2) (6).

Thursday's Movies. 9:00 A.M. (38) "The Incredible Shrinking Man." (1957). Grant Williams, and Randy Stuart. 9:00 A.M. (4) "The Story of Will Rogers." (1952) Will Rogers, Jr., Carl Benton Reid. 1:00 P.M. (4) "King Richard and the Crusaders." (1954) Rex Harrison and Virginia Mayo. 3:00 P.M. (8) "The Naked Jungle." (1957) Eleanor Parker and Charlton Heston. 3:30 P.M. (13) "A Guide for the Married Man." (1967) Walter Matthau and Robert Morse. 7:00 P.M. (2-6) NBC News Special Tornadoes.

8:00 P.M. (8-10) "The Good Guys and the Bad Guys." (1969) Robert Mitchum and George Kennedy.

10:30 P.M. (10) "Don't Make Waves." (1967). Tony Curtis and Claudia Cardinale.
